Eleven MHS Students Receive Recognition from National Merit Scholarship Program

Eleven MHS students have received recognition from the National Merit Scholarship Program for their PSAT/NMSQT scores. Brenna Saxton, Jeslyn Thompson, Riley Litts, Avantika Sathiraj, Ruby Almanza, Clayton Barnes, Joseph Prein, Nicholas DeWitt, Troy Thorell, and Garrett Sims have all been named National Merit Commended Students, and Brian Proksch has been named a National Merit Semifinalist.

Congratulations to all involved for this prestigious recognition. For more information about the National Merit Scholarship Program, visit http://www.nationalmerit.org/nmsp.php.

Submitted by Phil Eaton, Montgomery High School