MRE American Hero Wax Museum

MRE second graders researched an American hero using World Book Kids online. They used their research findings to make an informational flyer and a persuasive poster for their American hero. To conclude the unit of study, the students created a wax museum. The students dressed-up, memorized a small summarization and a quote, and played the role of their American hero.

Submitted by Jennifer Williamson, Madeley Ranch Elementary School