Kindergartners at Stewart Creek Elementary are studying the life cycle of the ladybug, observing as the bugs change from the pupa stage to the ladybug stage. The students are so excited by this lesson that they have been searching for and finding ladybugs on the playground.

Submitted by Melinda Schurr, Stewart Creek Elementary