SCE Living Museum

Stewart Creek Elementary fourth grade students recently participated in a Living Museum, in which they dressed up to portray their favorite American hero. After researching and writing reports on these heroes, the students shared their wealth of knowledge by giving an oral account of the historical role of these important people.

Submitted by Melinda Schurr, Stewart Creek Elementary