SCE Studies Endangered Animals

SCE 4th grade students participated in a study of endangered animals with the assistance of parent volunteers. The students were given facts about the animals and had to use reasoning skills to deduce which animal was being referenced.

Submitted by Melinda Schurr, Stewart Creek Elementary School